

March 8, 1944.

Mr. Ashford,

Dear Ashford:

I had expected an answer from you before now. You know we are planning to leave for Training Camp the last week in this month, and I am of course anxious to get my roster lined up.

I am enclosing an envelope for your convenience, so you will answer me right away and tell me to expect you and the other two boys.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ